Legendary Sports Prints Image Graces Book Cover

Plantsville, CT – March 14, 2008 – Legendary Sports Prints (LSP) is proud to announce that its popular image, “The M&M Boys”, is on the cover of a book by leading publisher Triumph Books, an imprint of Random House Publishing Group, the largest publisher of books. Triumph is one of the nation’s leaders in sports publishing.

“The M&M Boys” image, painted by renowned sports artist Bill Purdom for Legendary Sports Prints, continues to be one of LSP’s most popular images. It was a fitting image to be used on the cover of a book entitled “Memories of Yankee Stadium” by author Scott Pitoniak. “Art appears in so many different places and we at LSP are proud that we now have our images appearing on the cover of books, in addition to the many home, office, restaurant, museum and not-for-profit organization walls our art already adorn,” commented Mr. Vincent Furfaro, CEO and Co-Founder of LSP.

The book may be purchased from Triumph at its web site www.triumphbooks.com and the image may be viewed and purchased separately in the form of a fine art lithograph or giclee on paper or canvas from LSP at its web site www.legendarysportsprints.com.
