Legendary Sports Prints Becomes MLB Licensee

Agreement Solidifies Relationship Between MLB and LSP

Plantsville, CT – February 26, 2007 – Legendary Sports Prints (LSP) announced today that it has entered into an agreement with Major League Baseball Properties whereby its unique sports prints depicting classic baseball moments will be licensed by Major League Baseball Properties (www.mlb.com). Financial terms of the agreement were not released.

LSP produces limited edition sports lithographs of classic moments in sports history. Using highly renowned sports artists, such as Bill Purdom, to paint carefully researched action scenes, LSP then converts the original painting into highly sought after lithographs. Given the limited nature of any single print, the lithograph becomes an instant collector's item in addition to a respected piece of art.

“We are excited and proud to take this next step in LSP’s evolution to become licensed by Major League Baseball Properties for our baseball works,” said Mr. Vincent Furfaro, LSP’s Senior Vice President and Co-Founder. “This validates the great work we have done to date by completing the test of high standards that MLBP places on licensees. The license will also help to create new marketing and sales opportunities for LSP such as making LSP products available on MLB.com,” Mr. Furfaro added.
