

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Robert Glick (866.926.8577)

Legendary Sports Prints To Collaborate with MLBPA Initial Prints To Feature Hall of Fame Players

Plantsville, CT – May 9, 2007 – Legendary Sports Prints (LSP) announced today that it will join with The Major League Baseball Players Alumni Association (MLBPAA) to release a sports art series featuring past Hall of Fame baseball players, including Brooks Robinson, Ferguson Jenkins, Robin Yount and others. Each print will be licensed by Major League Baseball Properties and each respective player. A portion of the sale of each of these prints will go to further the causes of the Major League Baseball Players Alumni Association, a non-profit, 501(c) 3 organization.

The MLBPAA was formed in 1982 in order to promote the game of baseball, raise money for charity, inspire and educate youths through positive sport images and protect the dignity of the game through former players. Funds raised through this series will go to support the Alumni Association's charitable activities, including the Legends for Youth baseball clinic series and the Swing with the Legends charitable event series. Over 20,000 young players have received free-of-charge life and baseball instruction from former Major League players in over 80 cities worldwide. The Swing with the Legends series has raised over $8 million for its local charity partners including Children's Hospitals, Boys & Girls Clubs and the United Cerebral Palsy.

“While it is always exciting to expand our sports art portfolio of prints, it is even more gratifying to know that we will do so with a series of prints that will directly benefit the worthy efforts of the MLBPAA,” said Vincent Furfaro, LSP's Chief Executive Officer and Co-Founder.

“We are excited to partner with an organization such as LSP that is focused on producing the highest quality sports art,” said Daniel Foster, Chief Executive Officer of MLBPAA. “With the first print due to be released soon, I am optimistic that this series of prints will be successful,” Mr. Foster commented.

The first such print in the series will feature Brooks Robinson and is set for release in the beginning of May 2007. It will be available through LSP's dealer network, the MLBPAA and LSP's web site, www.sportslithographs.com.

About Legendary Sports Prints

Legendary Sports Prints is engaged in designing, developing, marketing and producing reproductions of hand painted fine art depicting memorable sports moments in history. LSP primarily markets such reproductions in the form of lithographs and giclees. Each reproduction, usually in a limited edition series of less than 1,000 prints, is hand signed by the artist. The Company also offers additional services such as framing and on selected prints, hand signed autographs of the individual depicted as well as the sale of the original painting from which the lithograph or giclee was derived. Additional information is available at LSP's website www.sportslithographs.com or by contacting LSP at 866.926.8577.

About Major League Baseball Players Alumni Association

The Major League Baseball Players Alumni Association (MLBPAA) was formed in 1982 in order to promote the game of baseball, raise money for charity, inspire and educate youths through positive sport images and protect the dignity of the game through former players. A non-profit organization, the MLBPAA establishes a place where a player's drive for excellence and achievement on the field can continue long after they take their last steps off the professional diamond. Headquartered in Colorado Springs, Colorado the MLBPAA's membership has soared to over 5,000 members and continues to climb. Membership includes approximately 2,700 former major league players, and 870 current players. The remainder of membership is comprised of minor league players, umpires, managers, coaches, front office personnel, media and fans. Additional information is available at MLBPAA's website www.baseballalumni.com.

·

###