Legendary Sports Prints Obtains Ruth and Gehrig License

Baseball Personalities to Appear in Sports Art

Plantsville, CT – May 31, 2007 – Legendary Sports Prints (LSP) announced today that it has entered into a licensing agreement with CMG Worldwide, Inc. for the use of Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig's likeness in LSP's sports art. Financial terms of the agreement were not released.

LSP produces limited edition sports lithographs of classic moments in sports history. Using highly renowned sports artists, such as Bill Purdom, Ron Stark and Al Sorenson, to paint carefully researched action scenes, LSP then converts the original painting into highly sought after lithographs and giclees. Given the limited nature of any single print, the lithograph or giclee becomes an instant collector's item in addition to a respected piece of art.

"Having licenses for two of the personalities closest associated with the sport of baseball seemed logical for one of the leading providers of baseball artwork," said Mr. Vincent Furfaro, LSP's Chief Executive Officer and Co-Founder. "LSP remains committed to licensing many of the sports personalities depicted. These licenses extend the reach of our existing suite of baseball licenses which already includes Major League Baseball Properties, the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum, among many others," Mr. Furfaro added.

"We are happy to add Legendary Sports Prints as a licensee of the images for both Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig for LSP's growing portfolio of art focused on baseball," said Mr. Pete Enfield, Vice President, CMG Worldwide. "Having seen their initial print depicting Babe Ruth, it meets the high quality standard indicative of the type of work we demand from our licensees," Mr. Enfield went on to add.

The initial images depicting the likeness of Babe Ruth and/or Lou Gehrig are The Bronx Bombers, Iron Horse and The Bambino. These as well as many other sports lithographs offered by LSP can be seen at www.sportslithographs.com. In addition to the unframed lithograph or giclee, LSP offers framing services. LSP's prints can also be purchased from LSP directly or from one of its authorized dealers listed on the web site.
