Legendary Sports Prints Releases Two New Images Thurman Munson and Memorial Stadium are Latest Releases

Plantsville, CT – March 17, 2008 – Legendary Sports Prints (LSP) has released two new exciting baseball prints in time for the start of the 2008 baseball season. LSP continues to deliver on its commitment to bring quality and affordable sports art to the marketplace.

The first of the two prints, entitled “Thurm an’ Fisk”, depicts New York Yankee favorite Thurman Munson, the famed New York Yankee catcher also known as “the captain,” whose life was tragically cut short by an airplane accident at the young age of 32. Munson played for the Yankees from 1969 through 1979. In this painting, Munson is seen at home plate while one of his arch rivals, Carlton Fisk is batting. The print is based on an original painting by renowned sports artist Bill Purdom.

The second print is the seventh in Legendary Sports Prints continuing historic stadium series. The painting features Memorial Stadium, once the home of the Baltimore Orioles, and once again is brought to life by Mr. Sorenson’s vivid colors. The print is based on an original painting by one of the fastest rising stars in sports art, Al Sorenson.

Reproductions of these images, as well as all of LSP’s other fine sports art are available through LSP’s dealer network and LSP’s web site at www.sportslithographs.com. The original painting for each of these two prints is also available through Legendary Sports Prints.
